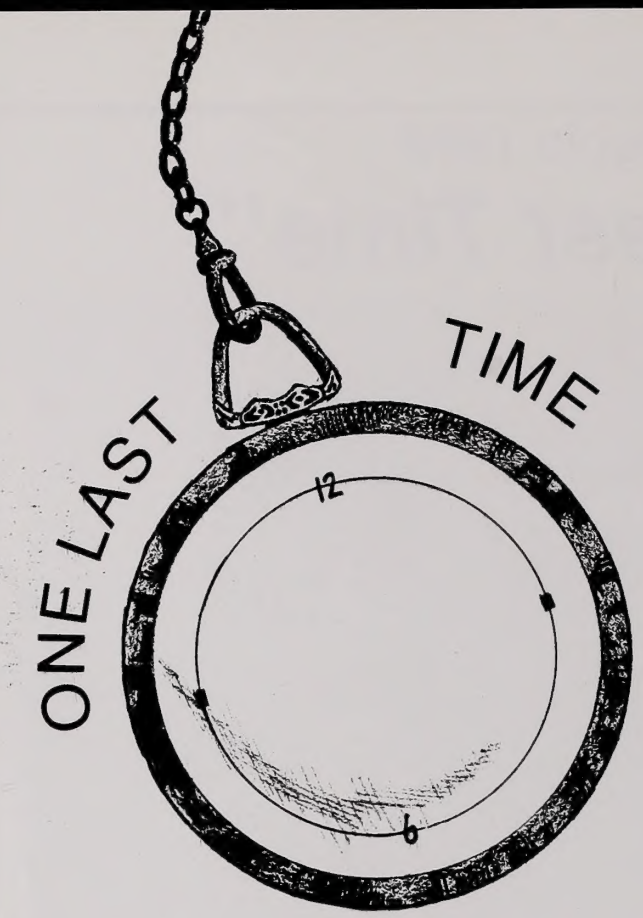
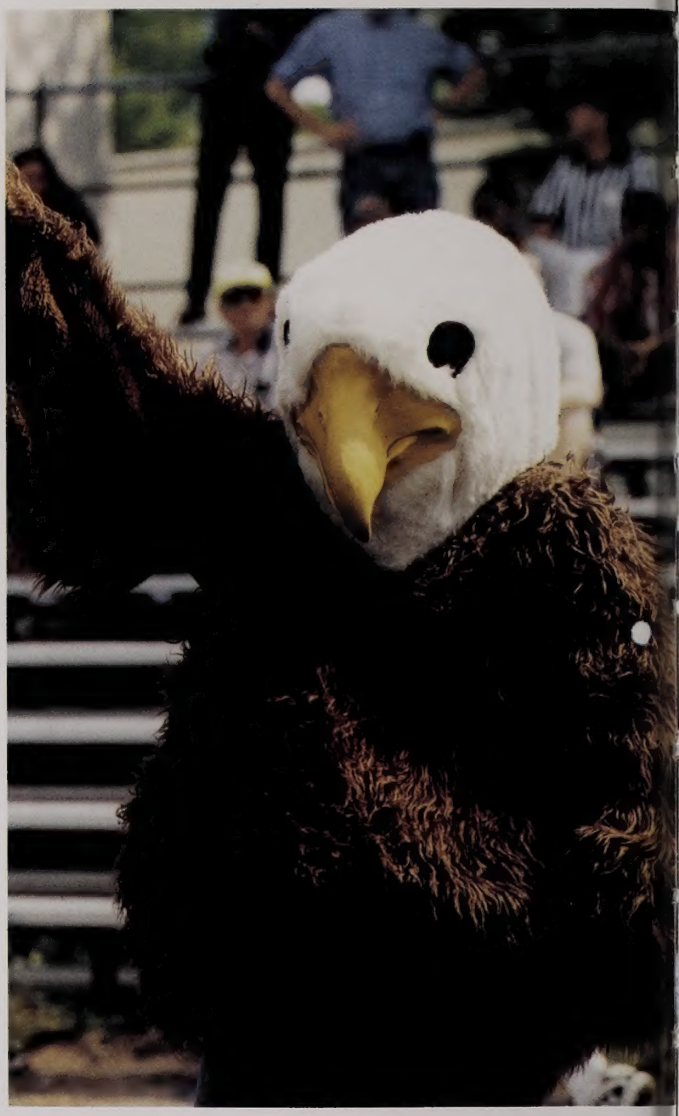
"One Last Time"

Sharon High School
Sharon, Massachusetts 02067

SHARON HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY
181 POND STREET
SHARON, MA 02067





The first day of school seems like only yesterday. Where did the time go? It flew by in a whirlwind of tests, parties, dances, sports events, meetings, and activities. 1999 was a year just like any other, but special because of the memories we will take with us. It was the end of a journey for some, the beginning for others, and memorable for us all. Now, for One Last Time, we look at the faces and the memories that made 1999 a year to remember.

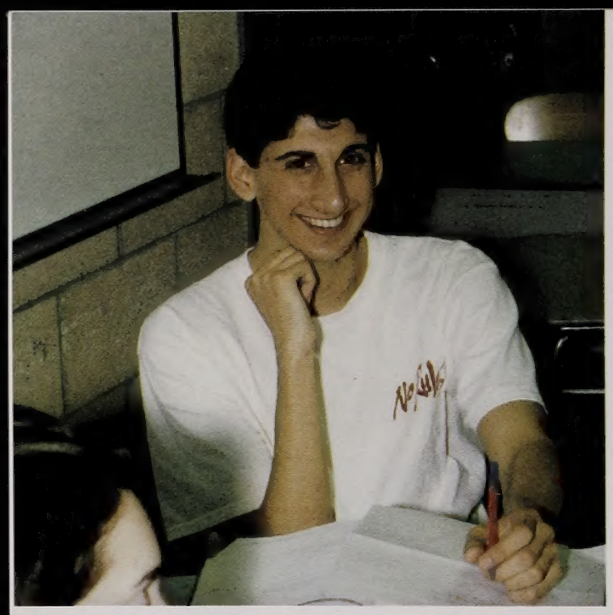
SENIORS

It has been said that these are the times to remember, for they are the best years of our lives. Whether this is true or not, throughout our high school careers, we have had many memorable experiences. Now, as the Class of '99 nears the end of its journey, we cling tightly to our memories of friends and teachers, of activities and experiences, and of challenges and successes.

As Graduation approaches, we should not focus only on the sadness of goodbye, but also celebrate how far we have come. With our time at Sharon High School drawing to a close, we look back on how the Class of '99 has made its mark on Sharon and ponder how someday the members of the Class of '99 will make their mark on the world. Through these pages, we remember our years here for One Last Time.



SENIORS

Time it was, and what a time it was,
It was a time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago it must be,
I have a photograph,
Preserve your memories,
They're all that's left you.

— Simon and Garfunkel

There's so much that time,
Time and memory fade away,
We've got our own roads to ride,
And chances we've got to take.

— Bruce Springsteen

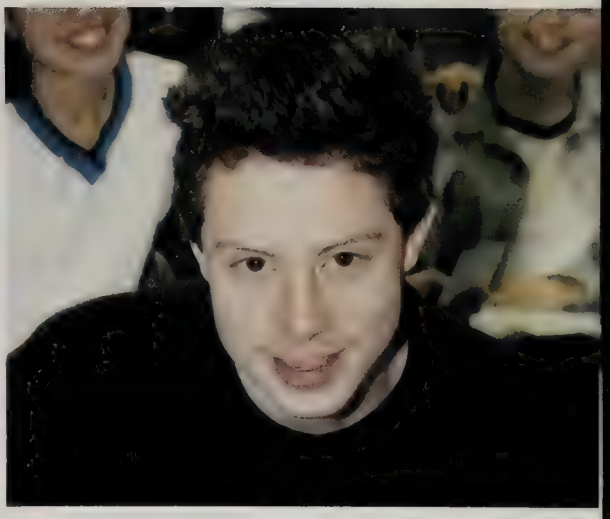
SENIORS

It's been such a long time,
I think I should be goin',
And time doesn't wait for me;
it keeps on rollin' . . .
. . . So many people have come and gone,
Their faces fade as the years go by,
Yet I still recall as I wander on,
As clear as the summer sky.

— Boston



We live on borrowed time,
Let's celebrate and sing,
As we walk bravely into the unknown.
'Cause we're gonna be just fine,
Whatever life may bring,
We'll face it all together,
And we'll never be alone.

— Scott Fried

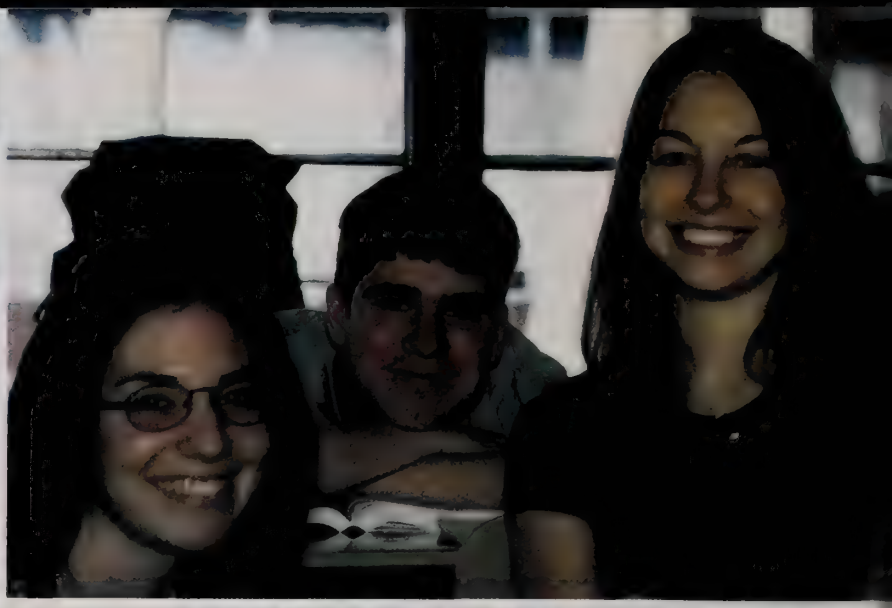
SENIORS

All your life they will tell you no. They will tell you no a thousand times, until all the no's become meaningless. And then you will tell them yes.

— Unknown

We've removed the ceiling above our dreams. There are no more impossible dreams.

— Jesse Jackson



SENIORS

We share the days of laughter
We share the nights of sorrow
And in the morning after
We face a bright tomorrow
Side by side we'll always stand
Spirits flying high
Long as I can hold your hand
We'll never say good-bye

— "Sing"

SENIORS

Don't look back
Don't be scared
We've got dreams
And we're still young
Just think about
how far we've come.
Think of all we have shared.
It's a wonder we survived

But here we are and we're alive
Can we hold on for long?
Take a moment to celebrate
Now before we hold on
Take a moment to celebrate.
— Michael Bolton

Prom

On April 4, 1998, the rain forest came alive with music, dancing, and laughter. The high school gym, complete with trees and a waterfall, never looked so beautiful; the long hours of planning and decorating certainly paid off! The Class of 99' danced long into the night, resplendent in elegant gowns and sleek tuxedos. As the last strains of Pachebel's "Canon" faded away, we knew that it was a night we would remember forever.

SENIORS

And the seasons go round & round
And the painted ponies go up & down
We're captive on a carousel of time
We can't return, we can only look
Behind from where we came
And go round & round & round in the circle game

— Joni Mitchell

May your hands always be busy
May your feet always be swift
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift
May your heart always be joyful
May your song always be sung
May you stay
Forever Young

— Rod Stewart

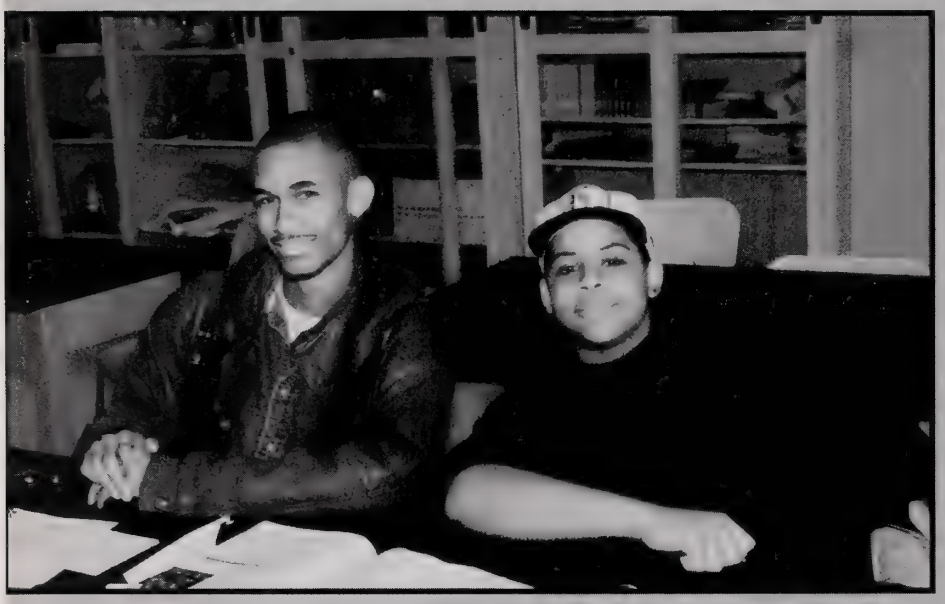
DEDICATION

When Mr. Sullivan came to Sharon High School four years ago, he found a small psychology program consisting solely of one half-year course. Through his enthusiasm and skill as a teacher, Mr. Sullivan transformed psychology into one of the most celebrated courses in the school.

AP Psychology's popularity is no mystery, for Mr. Sullivan has the rare ability to make learning fun. With his warmth and humor, he creates an atmosphere in which his students feel comfortable and eager to learn. The course is built upon lively, interactive demonstrations that bring the subject matter to life. In a class where the role of the textbook plays a distant second to the in-class activities, Mr. Sullivan's students come to share his tremendous enthusiasm for psychology. He stresses understanding instead of memorization and learning instead of grades. At the same time, he prepares his students so well for the Nation Advanced Placement Examination that they consistently earn top scores.

Mr. Sullivan's dedication to his students is apparent to both in and out of the classroom. He is always accessible, always attentive to students' needs, and always interested in their opinions. After school, Mr. Sullivan can often be found supporting his students as a spectator at their sporting events. As the track coach, he shows a patience, positive attitude, and encouragement that seem to know no bounds. Mr. Sullivan is a genuinely kind, funny, and moral human being who certainly deserves the great respect given to him by students and faculty alike. Sharon High School is lucky to have a teacher like him. For all that he has done as an inspiring teacher and person, we are delighted to dedicate the 1999 edition of the Marsengold yearbook to Mr. Michael Sullivan.

There are few people at Sharon High School who have made as significant an impact as Mr. Fazzio. His contributions to Sharon High School as a teacher, a student council adviser, a coach, and a vice principal are unparalleled. Mr. Fazzio approaches everything he does with an intense passion, creativity, and enthusiasm. As a teacher, he inspires his students with his unique approach to learning. Students often choose to take his classes simply because Mr. Fazzio is the teacher. With his engaging style of teaching, he encourages his students to think and to continually challenge themselves. As the student council adviser, Mr. Fazzio shows a firm dedication to the student body, always supporting the students in their efforts to bring about change in the school. This year, as the student services coordinator, Mr. Fazzio's loyalty to the students has remained unchanged. He has fought on behalf of the students in countless situations: to improve the parking situation, to initiate senior privileges, and to ensure that school events would run smoothly. When the school needed him, he stepped into the role of vice principal with a visibility and an activism never quite seen before at Sharon High School. While his teaching has been greatly missed this year, he has maintained an accessibility to the students and an involvement with the classes he used to teach. It is hard to measure Mr. Fazzio's effect on Sharon High, for his impact is felt in all areas of the school. Respected by students and faculty alike, Mr. Fazzio continues to have an enormous presence in the Sharon High community, and for all that he has done which is worthy of praise, we offer him our deepest appreciation.



UNDERCLASS MEN

For some, this was a year of firsts, entering high school and beginning a new chapter in life. For others, the journey is nearly over. This year's underclassmen will all go their own ways someday, but for now, they are all still a part of Sharon High. No matter what roads in life they ultimately choose, they will always have their memories of these high school years to cherish for a lifetime.

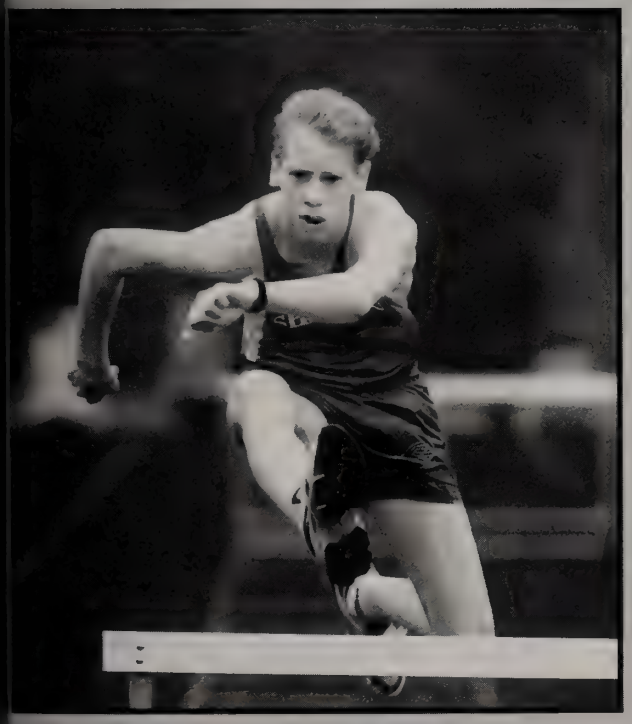
SPORTS



1998-99 was a special year for all of the sports teams at Sharon High School. The Eagles won some stunning victories and lost some disappointing defeats. Some teams achieved great success; others had a rebuilding year. Whatever their records, Sharon athletes approached sports with confidence, dedication, determination, and spirit. The weeks spent working together to reach their goals created a special community atmosphere and a unique bond between teammates. Secret psycher posters decorated the halls before each game; team dinners unified the players. The Eagles played to win, but they also played for fun. In 1998-99, some teams won more than others, but every team went onto the field full of heart, ready to give its all. For senior athletes, this was the year to play in a Sharon uniform for One Last Time, and side by side with the underclassmen, they made it a year they would never forget.

The Sharon High boys' tennis team had another incredible season in the spring of 1998. They went 16-0 in the Hockomock League, completing their fourteenth straight season without a loss in the league. The team was led by junior tri-captains, Scott Bennett at first singles, David Soffer at second singles, and Jason Snelgrove at second doubles. The varsity team also included sophomore Jon Arkin at third singles, junior Aaron Bickoff and sophomore Robbie Greece at first doubles, and junior Scott Yunes at second doubles. Even with no seniors on the team, they came up with big wins over league rivals Canton and Oliver Ames. Coach Holt led the team to the semi-finals of the state tournament before they lost in a close match to Dover-Sherborn. Scott Bennett and the doubles team of Jason Snelgrove/Scott Yunes both did extremely well in the state individual tournament. The whole team will be returning for the spring of 1999, and with four Hockomock League All-Stars, the Sharon High boys' tennis team will be a favorite to go far in the state tournament.

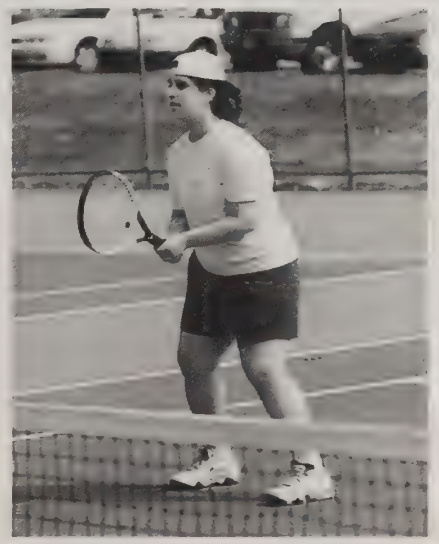
The girls' tennis team had an amazing season in the spring of '98. The team went 15-1 during the regular season, sweeping the Hockomock League title. Led by captains Lauren Bork and Stephanie Shuffain, the girls made it to the third round of the state tournament.

Coach Basil Cronin and the team are looking forward to yet another wonderful season, as they are only losing one member from last year's varsity squad. Captains Marisa Picheny, Lindsey Schantz, Leah Schneiderman, and Debbie Silver wish the team the best of luck and wish Coach Cronin a healthy and happy retirement.



spring track

The 1998 girls' track team featured the 4 x 100 meter relay team of Meaghan Bethoney, Rebecca Dickins, Sarah Hardy, and Cassie Clark; the girls had tremendous success in the State Class C, All State, and New England Meets. The throwing events were led by senior captain Jennie Chiller, the hurdle events were led by senior captain Ariel Freedman, and the jumping events were led by senior captain Shari Mendlowitz. Despite losing key members to graduation, the team is looking forward to the 1999 season.

The 1998 boys' track team had a rebuilding season; however, captains Jamie Mann, Mark Tang, Ravi Mehta, Kevin Chan, and Dave Wilson all had strong performances. The 1999 track season will hopefully hold success for the talented, young team, as it competes against the strong Hockomock League competition.

Both teams would like to thank Coaches Norris, Sullivan, and Carroll for their encouragement and support.

The boys' baseball team had an excellent year on and off the field. The Eagles compiled an impressive winning record. For the first time in several years, the baseball team qualified for the Division II State Tournament. After doing so, they showed the strengths and capabilities of the team as they decisively defeated Holliston in the first round, and they fought to the end in the final game against Dighton-Rehobyth but came up short. The trip to Florida in April was an unforgettable experience; it unified the guys as a team and as friends. The seniors came on strong in their final year, thanks to strong pitching from Key Arguimbeau and Adam Blaustein. The hot bats and stellar defense of Weiner, Levine, Wolfe, Drews, and Orleck helped set an excellent example for the underclassmen. The underclassmen, led by this year's captains, Ben Shuffain and Mike Schindelar, were also huge contributors to the success of the team.

Despite many hardships that the 1998 girls lacrosse team had to face, the outcome of their second season proved that they have the dedication necessary to play at a varsity level. With seniors Rachel Rung (captain), Breanna Giorigo (captain), and Noelle Erickson leading the way offensively, and with juniors Rhyan Toal (captain) and Beth Fitzpatrick putting up a hard defensive line with the help of goalie Catherine Ford, the Eagles were able to beat Medford twice. Coach Coburn has a lot to look forward to next year as Catherine Ford and Aliza Cover join with Rhyan Toal as captains to lead the growing team to their best season ever.

This past year, the Sharon High School golf team enjoyed another solid season. Finishing with six wins and ten losses in the hardest league in the state was quite an accomplishment for a team that lost three key players the year before. Next year's team will have an even tougher time as captains Joe Milbury and David Selenow, as well as seniors J.B. Morris, Greg King, and Dan Apone, graduate. We would like to thank Mr. Cook for another year of his help.

Inspired by a strong sense of determination and the will to win, the team proved that they were able to compete with any Hockomock opponent. Led by captains Robyn Bluestein, Laura Brown, Samantha Ritt, and Rhyan Toal as well as seniors Aliza Cover, Holli Kawadler, Erin McIsaac, and Abbey Nickinson, the girls accomplished most of the high goals that they had set. The seniors would like to thank coaches Ms. Carroll and Mrs. Gassman for their support and wish the underclassmen luck in the upcoming season.

The team had three all-stars: Senior Mike Schindelar, senior Jaeson Kawadler, and junior Torrey Smith. The Eagles advanced to the second round of the state tournament. The season was highlighted by the Eagles' first round tournament win when, against Middleboro, Smith won the game in a shootout, breaking a 1-1 tie that had stood following regulation and two overtime periods. The team would like to thank Coach Alan Howie, Assistant Coach Barry Kaye, and Team Manager Alan Motenko for all their help in making the 1998 season great.

Leah, with her amazing blocks; Brooke, with her powerful serves; Amanda, with her great sets; and Lauren, with her defensive play, guided the team to victory. The team faced each match with fire and enthusiasm. Their motto, "Take it to the whistle" was shown through their play as they had a terrific season.

The teams were led by junior Captains Adam Greenspan and Saul Miller. The senior Captains were Rebecca Blankstein and Katharine Panessidi. Both teams trained hard throughout the entire season; unfortunately, along the way there were severe cases of illnesses that cost our team to lose some key runners midway through our season. The entire team is extremely supportive of each other and that's what makes the cross country season so enjoyable for everyone who runs. Next year will be another tough year for the cross country team, but with as much determination as this team has, anything is possible.

The Sharon Field Hockey Team had a great season this year. Although their final record was not indicative of their high level of play, the Eagles were an extremely competitive team throughout the entire season. The team was led by senior captains Beth Fitzpatrick, Michelle Burrows, Leah Kuppersmith, and Lindsey Schantz, and five other talented seniors. Everyone on the team showed great improvement, determination, and heart. They shared many great memories on and off the field together. The team couldn't have played as well without Coach Kathy Decas's support from the sidelines.

All members of the team have made significant contributions in what was an extremely successful season.

Throughout the 1998-1999 school year, the Sharon High students took advantage of many different opportunities to take an active role in the school and community. With dedication, creativity, and leadership, the high schoolers participated in over forty clubs. Their efforts led to such accomplishments as the breathtaking production of Once On This Island, the planting of flowers to beautify Sharon High School, and the participation in community service projects which helped people of all walks of life.

The students also showed their enthusiasm on several special days throughout the school year. On Halloween, the decorated halls were filled with Nintendo characters, ladybugs, Potatoheads, and Monopoly board pieces, among others. At Homecoming, dozens of students braved the cold and came to the football field to ride the floats and show their school and class spirit. Through their involvement in so many different activities and events, the students gave Sharon High an energetic and exciting atmosphere throughout the year.

Although it may not always show, the students of Sharon High truly are grateful to the teachers for their outstanding efforts in providing us with opportunities both within and beyond the walls of our school.

Still I Rise
By, Maya Angelou

You may write me down in history with your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt but still, like dust, I'll rise.

Does my sassiness upset you? Why are you beset with gloom?
'Cause I walk like I've got oil wells pumping in my living room.

Just like moons and like suns, With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high, Still I'll rise.

Did you want to see me broken? Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops, Weakened by my soulful cries.

Does my haughtiness offend you? Don't you take it awful hard,
'Cause I laugh like I've got gold mines diggin' in my own backyard.

You may shoot me with your words, You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness, But still, like air, I'll rise.

Does my sexiness upset you? Does it come as a surprise,
That I dance like I've got diamonds at the meeting of my thighs?

Out of the huts of history's shame I rise,
Up from a past that's rotted in pain I rise,
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear I rise,
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear I rise,
Bringing the gifts that many ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of a slave
I rise I rise I rise.

Dear Michael,

Congratulations! We're so proud of you. We love you very much.

Some People

Some People come into our lives and quickly go.
Some People move our souls to dance.
They awaken us to understanding with the passing whisper of their wisdom.
Some People make the sky more beautiful to gaze upon.
They stay in our lives for awhile, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never, ever the same.
